

BREAKS

The City recognizes the need for an occasional break during the workday in order to remain productive. While the City does not have an official policy on scheduled breaks, each department has the responsibility of monitoring the breaks of their employees. Departments are not required to provide breaks for their employees.