

Chesapeake 9/11 Memorial

CONCEPTUAL PLAN

Chesapeake has the distinct honor of having artifacts from all three 9/11 crash sites. The artifacts from the Pentagon and Shanksville, PA are currently on display in the lobby of the Parks, Recreation and Tourism Visitor Center while the five-and-a-half-ton steel beam from the World Trade Center is on display in Chesapeake City Park.

For additional information or to discuss volunteer opportunities, please contact the Expanded Public Art Committee at info@ches911memorial.org

TO DONATE: Make check payable to “Chesapeake Treasurer” and send to the Parks, Recreation and Tourism Office, 1224 Progressive Drive, Chesapeake, VA 23320. Please write “Chesapeake 9/11 Memorial” in the note section of the check.

CHESAPEAKE
FINE ARTS
COMMISSION

The Chesapeake Fine Arts Commission (CFAC) has served as a united voice for the arts community since 1968, educating the public about the value and significance of music, architecture, dance, painting, and sculpture. Through financial assistance, the CFAC has enabled and enriched the personal lives of its citizens and the local economy. The CFAC provides project, operational and individual opportunity grants to nonprofit cultural and fine arts organizations and individuals through the grant application process. The deadline for grant applications is the second Thursday in January. Successful grant recipients demonstrate direct artistic benefit to the citizens of Chesapeake.

Arts Alive! Chesapeake

Chesapeake Arts Alive! was established in 2006, and is an educational and charitable organization working to sustain the Chesapeake arts community through volunteer support and fundraising activities. Its signature event, the annual Arts Alive! Student Competition, is held each February. This competition offers students a professional critique and potential grant award to continue their studies in the arts. Visit ArtsAliveChesapeake.org in December for information about next year's Arts Alive! Student Competition. Consider becoming part of Chesapeake's cultural arts network: volunteer or join “Arts Alive! Chesapeake” and click “Join Us.”
