

Public Input Open House

Review of Boundaries and Guidelines for the South Norfolk Local Historic District

This is to provide notice that the City of Chesapeake will hold an open house on March 2, 2016 at the South Norfolk Public Library's Community Meeting Room from 5:30 p.m. - 7:30 p.m. related to a review of the physical boundaries and design guidelines of the South Norfolk Historic and Cultural Preservation Overlay District. No formal presentation will be made by City representatives during the open house. Interested citizens and other stakeholders may attend at any point between 5:30 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. as your schedule permits to view display maps and other related materials and to provide input to City staff. Notice is also provided that one or more City Council Members may choose to attend the open house.

Public input is being sought as part of a City Council requested review of the City's Zoning Ordinance and the South Norfolk Historic and Cultural Preservation Overlay District Design Guidelines for possible amendments to the boundaries of the district and to the design standards for maintenance and repair, construction, demolition, and other applicable district standards. This review is formally designated as TA-Z-15-08. For further information regarding the open house or TA-Z-15-08, please contact Senior Planner Alexis Baker of the Chesapeake Planning Department at 757-382-6176 or by email at arbaker@cityofchesapeake.net.

The City of Chesapeake will provide reasonable accommodations and services necessary for sensory-impaired and disabled persons. Please contact Mr. Tim Winslow, Municipal Facilities Administrator, Public Works at 382-6273 at least three-working days in advance of the open house.
