

Coloring contest
for students!

You're invited to celebrate...

GIS DAY 2008

with The City of Chesapeake!

A Map Gallery showcasing City GIS work will be displayed and GIS staff will be available from 10am - 2pm on Wednesday, November 19th.

AGENDA

PRESENTATIONS in City Council Chambers:

- 10am "Tracking Residential Development with GIS" by Keisha Wilkins, Planning Department
- 10:30am "Chesapeake's Comprehensive Plan Update" by Rebecca Benz, Planning Department
- 11am "GPS: You Are Here" by Andy Winz, Public Works Department
- 1pm "State of the Urban Forest" by Ivan Brown, Information Technology Department & Mik Lestyan, Neighborhood Services Department
- 1:30pm "Before and After Hurricane Isabel: GIS in the EOC" by Mary Money Penny, Information Technology Department

"What Is GIS" Presentation will run in Council Chambers between the Scheduled Presentations.

DEMONSTRATIONS running continuously in City Hall Lobby:

Pictometry Online Image Warehouse by Paul Paris, Information Technology Department
ArcGIS Explorer by Cameron McCormick, Information Technology Department
LIDAR Imagery by Ivan Brown, Information Technology Department
3D Analyst by Andy Winz, Public Works Department

For More Information or to RSVP a Large Group, Please Contact Rebecca Benz at 382-6176 or Paul Paris at 382-6391.