

DEDUCTIONS FROM YOUR PAY

There are two types of deductions taken from your payroll check--mandatory and optional. The mandatory deductions include federal withholding tax; Virginia withholding tax; and social security. In some cases, court orders for alimony, child support, garnishments or other levies may also result in mandatory deductions.

The optional deductions include health insurance coverage; optional life insurance; United Way Fund; deferred compensation; savings bonds; flexible spending, and credit union deductions.