CRIME of the WEEK – October 20, 2008

On October 11, 2008, an armed robbery occurred at Advance America Cash Advance located at 681 North Battlefield Boulevard. Shortly after 1:30 PM, the suspect entered the business, jumped over the front counter and pointed a small, black handgun at the employee. After obtaining money the suspect fled the business, on foot, in an unknown direction. He is described as a black male with a dark complexion, 20 to 30 years old and about 5' 9" tall, 165 pounds. He was last seen wearing a brown hooded sweatshirt over a white hooded sweatshirt, dark pants, a black beanie and black sneakers with white trim.

Chesapeake Police are seeking information on a vandalism/larceny from Prince of Peace Catholic Church located at 621 Cedar Road. Sometime between 12:30 PM, on August 24 and 9:00 AM, on August 27, 2008, a statue was dragged from the prayer garden in to the parking lot and was destroyed. The culprits then stole the head from the statue before leaving the scene.
