

OFFICE TELEPHONES

City telephones are made available to employees to conduct City-related business. While these telephones are not intended for personal use, the City acknowledges employees need to make personal calls on occasion. Personal calls must be via an office telephone instead of a cellular phone, kept short to cause minimal disruption to the workplace, and be local.