*Application will be placed on the appropriate agenda once all outstanding issues have been addressed. Must be notarized and signed by applicant and owner.

This schedule assumes applications are fully complete upon submittal and no significant issues are identified through the review process.

All required application submittal requirements as outlined in the City Code and Zoning Ordinance, including all required legal paperwork include power-of-attorney(s), statement(s) of ownership, title reports, Real Estate Demonstration forms, indemnification agreements, and all other application requirements put forth by the City Code and Zoning Ordinance. Any application that fails to provide this information by 5pm will automatically be deemed incomplete and will not be processed. Proffer statements are not included as they are due at a later date.
